DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on October 13, 2005, which has been fully considered in this action.
2. The indicated allowability of claims 21-31 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference to Copeland (U.S. Patent No. 444,564). Rejections based on the newly cited reference follow.

Election/Restrictions

3. Claims 15-17 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on April 29, 2005.
4. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 18-20 in the reply filed on April 29, 2005 is acknowledged, however, claims 18-20 have now been canceled is considered moot. After further review the examiner has decided to include claims 21-57. An action on claims 21-57 follows.

The requirement concerning claims 15-17 is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 26 is objected to because of the following informalities: In lines 5 and 6, the phrase “a fluid coupling construction at least one end” is not note clearly written and is confusing as to what is being recited. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 26 is incomplete for omitting the essential structural cooperative relationships of all the elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are between the second fluid coupling construction and the additional module.

Claim 27 is indefinite since it claims an additional fluid coupling construction for the base, however, recites it “for coupling to a module’s fluid construction coupling construction”. It is not clear if this for the at least one additional module or for the module as recited in claim 21, if it is the latter than it is not clear why an additional base fluid coupling construction would be warranted for the one module.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 21-23, 29 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Copeland.

Copeland discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention, note elongated tubularly-shaped and horizontally positioned module E² with an arcuately shaped upper portion with a plurality of apertures e and fluid coupling construction at one end E/E'; and an elongated tubularly shaped and vertically positioned stack having a base portion/body portion B with a fluid coupling construction D/D'.

As to claim 31, note lines 67-69.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Copeland.

Copeland discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention, except for the bottom portion being flat and the specific height and width of the module. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the bottom portion of the horizontal member be flat since such a modification provide stability for the member when positioning it beneath the ground. As to the height and width, such dimensions would be chosen depending on the flow rate desired through the module.

Allowable Subject Matter

12. Claims 32-57 are allowed.
13. Claim 30 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
14. Claims 26-28 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
